The Paradox of Time.

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"An' other, we say not, what need to chuse the hours?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"Over in the eye's dream?"

"Or, 'tis the heart's dream?"

"Lead through some landscape low?"

"We pass and think we're home?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"Once in the days of old?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"And men had shamed the crew?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"We're all the slaves of love?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"Once, when my voice was strong?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"If I could but go back again?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"Where are you now? I find?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"See, in what travailed ways?"

"What backs have been delayed?"

"What's come to us since?"

"Where are our old dealers?"

"What's become of our old love?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"How goes it, for old time's sake?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"Live in the eyes glories?"

"Now, on the horizon?"

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."

"Time goes, you say? Ah yes."
